Tom Everett-Heath : Central Asia: Aspects of Transition (Central Asia Research Forum) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Central Asia: Aspects of Transition (Central Asia Research Forum):

The five central Asian States of Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan stand at the crossroads of world civilization. Influenced by South Asia, Iran, China and Russia, this region which has recently burst onto the world stage once again, guards a distinct identity. This collection by established experts on the area covers the dramatic Soviet interventions of the early twentieth century, and details the role of ethnicity and the contribution made by Islamic impulses in the process of building the modern nation states.
