to implement. I look forward to a future without being dominated by the inbox.

Every executive wants to focus on things that really matter. The problem is most executives spend more than one hour a day on e-mail. What once was used for the number-one tool for business to function has also become the number-one source of wasted time for executives. "Taming the E-mail Tiger" gives you the know-how to spend less time on e-mail and more time focusing on the things that really matter, like making money! When you master your email you master your business productivity. Taming the E-mail Tiger helps executives in four ways: Saves you at least 5 hours a week Decreases unwanted stress Improves your work quality Increases focus on business profits
