Handy reference for the corporate communicator or marketing professionalBy Susanna HutchesonEvery written document used by a business, from a simple email message to the website, should be written with care. There are ways to write each document that will make your business either look great or quite bad.

Every document that leaves your desk or your employee's desks need to be written according to certain formats and rules that have, over time, proven effective. That's where this book comes in. Included are sample sales letters, surveys and press releases among many other documents. I found them all to be quite professional and well done. Even rules for subject lines are included. If you want your business to look professional and you want to make a good impression, you will benefit from having a copy of this book.-- Susanna K.
