The author delivered perspectives from top professionals in a simple and clear manner.1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Very thought provokingBy Mrs. K. A. PearceI have found this book extremely thought provoking, well researched and written. As it states, a must read for anyone involved in the business of private equity.

The easy money that flowed through the banking system prior to 2008 fueled a boom in buy-outs. Now it is gone, how will the private equity industry reinvent itself? A series of interviews with some of the most respected and innovative firms, give rare insights to the strategies that will drive this secretive sector over the next economic cycle.

About the Author MARK BISHOP is a former magazine journalist turned corporate financier, who has advised both management teams and private equity firms in connection with buyouts and buy-ins. In 2011, he co-founded The Management Buy-Out Centre LLP, which acts for managements in securing funding from private equity firms for ownership change, growth and turnaround. He lives in Surrey, United Kingdom.
