A great overview of our current political/economic debacleBy Andrew GunnoeAlthough I am widely read in Marxian political economy I have not had the chance to read much of Samir Amin's work. I found this book to be a great introduction to Amin's approach to Marxian political economy and his take on the state of contemporary Capitalism. Amin's greatest strength is his ability to covers such a large swatch of issues in a succinct and theoretically informed manner. His conceptualization of our current era as "generalized monopoly capitalism" is compelling and helps update Baran and Sweezy's original conceptualization of Monopoly Capitalism. This would be a great book for college courses, both advanced undergrad and graduate.

Renowned political economist Samir Amin, engaged in a unique lifelong effort both to narrate and affect the human condition on a global scale, brings his analysis up to the present—the world of 2013. The key events of our times—the financial crisis, the emerging nations, globalization, financialization, political Islam, Eurozone implosion—are related in a coherent, historically based, account.

"With The Implosion of Contemporary Capitalism, Samir Amin brilliantly analyzes the financial collapse, the debt crisis, the rise of political Islam, and more. He has once again looked into the near future and laid a knowledge base for developing a strategy of resistance to global capitalism and Western imperialism. The text echoes Amin's 1992 book, Empire of Chaos, in its prescience. In between Chaos and Implosion, his more than a dozen other books have documented the period of capitalist development following the fall of the Socialist states and the first Gulf War to the present progressively vicious form of finance capitalism and endless U.S. imperialist wars, along with the pauperization of the peoples of the South."—Roxanne Dunbar Ortiz, author of This Land: Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States

About the Author Samir Amin was born in Egypt in 1931 and received his Ph.D. in economics in Paris in 1957. He is director of the Third World Forum in Dakar, Senegal. His numerous works include The Law of Worldwide Value, Eurocentrism: Second Edition, The World We Wish to See, The Liberal Virus, Accumulation on a World Scale, Imperialism and Unequal Development, and The Implosion of Contemporary Capitalism.
